AUTHOR GUIDELINES 2011

Author guidelines

The International Journal DIGITAL_DENTAL.NEWS is a special interest magazine focusing on the topic of digital dental technologies, which is exclusively devoted to the subject matter of digitization of the possible and relevant fields of work in the dental practice and dental laboratory. As an interdisciplinary special interest magazine, DIGITAL_DENTAL.NEWS refers to both ambitious dentists and dental technicians who continuously want to improve their skills. All submitted articles should account for these aspects in terms of content and design.

● Structure and form

Articles should be written according to the following structure:

Title (subtitles optionally)

Author (if applicable with title, surname and last name)

Introduction

Text

Bibliography, if necessary, (author, title, publication with month and year of publication or publisher with place and date of publication, ISBN / ISSN, page reference)

Author data (photo, a short curriculum vitae, e-mail address)

The manuscript should be sensibly structured and provided with subheadings. Images should be numbered, contain captions and assign to specific parts of the text, e.g.: “Fig. 1 shows ...” or “... (Figs. 1 and 2)”. The bibliographical references should also be numbered according to their occurrence in the text and should be assigned to specific text passages e.g.: “...[1]”.

Manuscript

The text should either be sent via e-mail or uploaded onto the DDN server (max. 200 MB per upload). The e-mail or internet address, required username, password and keyword can be inquired from the editors of DIGITAL_DENTAL.NEWS.

All word processing programs WORD in the versions for WINDOWS are accepted. In case of the usage of different programs, the text should be converted into the WORD for WINDOWS format or saved in the ASCII or RTF format.

The text length has to be discussed beforehand with the editors. Extensive articles may be published in series.

Images

Digital images should be sent via e-mail (max. 10 MB per e-mail) or uploaded onto the DDN server (max. 200 MB per upload). The e-mail and internet address, required username, password and keyword can be inquired from the editors of DIGITAL_DENTAL.NEWS.

Approved formats are *.jpg, *.tiff or *.eps. A resolution of at least 300 dpi is required. Unprocessed original image files are explicitly favored. The templates should be sharp, of high color fidelity and rich in contrast. For images of machines, instruments, restorations on models and the like, the background should be consistent, plain-colored and unstructured. Generally, if photographs showing faces are published, the author is responsible for the agreement of the person on the picture or the agreement of the legal representative – otherwise, the person has to be made unrecognizable by covering the eyes.

Author guidelines

Articles should not contain more than 20 images. The author should contact the editors if a higher number of images are desired.

● Source references / bibliography

Citations and images taken from external copyrighted texts or articles should be appropriately identified with the particular source of reference. If necessary, a reprint statement should be requested for longer abstracts or illustrations by the author. If there is no such notice, the editorial team and the publisher will take this as the author's confirmation that his article is free of third party rights. The editorial team maintains the right to decide whether to publish the bibliographies in the printed version or exclusively on www.ddn-online.net.

● Appraisal

All submitted articles will be appraised by the editorial team and/or the expert advisory committee of DIGITAL_DENTAL.NEWS. Publication cannot be assured in advance. There is no claim for a publication in a certain issue of DIGITAL_DENTAL.NEWS. The editorial team reserves the right to edit the manuscript as well as the images.

● Admission of right

With the submission of his article, the author agrees to the author guidelines and ensures that the article has not been published in the same form (text and images) elsewhere. All exclusive rights of use, including the right to publish and copy the article in parts or in full length in DIGITAL_DENTAL.NEWS, remain with the publisher for five years. Generally, the agreement of Comcord GmbH is necessary for further publications.
